JUVENILE WORK CREWS IMPROVE LOCAL COMMUNITIES

Community service activities planned statewide April 22 as part of National Youth Service Day

WHAT: Juvenile Court work crews throughout the state will be working to improve local communities during National Youth Service Day, April 21-23, 2006. Millions of youth nationwide will participate in this eighteenth annual event, which is considered the largest service event in the world.

The purpose of National Youth Service Day is to mobilize youth to identify and address the needs of their communities through service; to support youth on a life-long path of service and civic management; and to educate the public, media, and policymakers about the year-round contributions of youth people as community leaders.

WHEN: Saturday, April 22. Please call the contact listed below for times and locations.

WHERE/WHO: Second District, Ogden's Liberty Park clean up, Julio Castro, 801-920-3611
Third District, wetlands restoration, Draper, Shane Kibler, 643-6573
Fourth District, garden planting in Delta, Sherie Flag, 435-864-7933
Fifth District, pond clean up in Hurricane, Paul Herpin, 435-632-4681
Seventh District (Moab), wool caps knitted for children in Bangladesh, Carey Seals, 435-650-6813
